An unearthly voice hisses unholy welcome. And the late, great Allen Carpentier begins his one-way journey into the dim nether regions where flame-colored demons wield diabolically sharp pitchforks and tormented vixens reign forever in a pond of sheer ice. Here, in this land of torment and terror, he discovers the a Inferno by the writing duo of Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle is the tale of a sci-fi writer who dies and ends up in hell. He traverses through Dante's imaginings of hell as he seeks to escape. There is much humor throughout as at first, the assumption of a science fiction expert is that rather than hell, he has been brought back to life by a future, more advanced society. Gradually, he ...
